How it works:

1. Plan

We'll discuss with you the number of positions you need filled as well as required skills and credentials, and put together a training plan.

2. Recruit

We'll develop the training and recruit, screen, and select qualified candidates according to criteria you set.

3. Train

We will execute a two- to five-week training that includes soft skills, classroom instruction, and hands-on technical learning, based on your needs.

4. Hire

Training graduates are now ready to work hard for your business. We can also help employers access wage subsidy programs for the individuals you hire through BWI.

5. Support

After placement, we continue serve as a resource to help you retain and grow your skilled workforce.

FAQs

Are there eligibility requirements for me as an employer or the types of positions I'm hiring for?

No, however we're committed to placing our graduates into great careers with living wages and opportunities for advancement. If you are unsure whether you meet that criteria, we can work with you to assess and improve job quality.

Will this cost me money?

No. BWI will develop, recruit for, and execute a customized training at no cost to you. We also provide free job placement and ongoing retention support to the employers we work with.

How long will the training last?

Trainings typically last two to five weeks; however, it will depend on your needs as an employer and the skills provided to trainees.

What will the training consist of?

The content of the training will vary depending on your needs, most our trainings typically include soft skills and career readiness training as well as technical skills. We also offer licensing and credentialing for industries where it is applicable.

How soon will I be able to hire?

The process of developing, recruiting for, and executing a training will vary depending on your needs. It's best to get in touch as soon as you start thinking about training so that we can begin the conversation.
