Sponsorship Opportunities

Our Mission

Brooklyn Workforce Innovations (BWI) is celebrating 24 years of supporting economic mobility for historically marginalized communities across the five boroughs. BWI's mission is to empower low-income people by creating living-wage employment opportunities and access to career paths in growing fields with local hiring demand. This work is more important now than ever, as rapid changes in the economy leave many unemployed and underemployed New Yorkers behind. BWI removes barriers to employment and helps over 900 people each year build skills, connect to career-ladder opportunities, and find long-term success in the workforce.

Our Event

2024 Spring Celebration
Heroes & Innovators

On June 13th, BWI's Spring Celebration will bring together local businesses, community partners, program alumni, and others who champion job training as an effective tool for fighting poverty. We invite you to gather and enjoy great local food, live music and a program highlighting our impact and honoring the Heros and Innovators who have made this important work possible.
